

Roads and Schools Discussed At Board of Trade Meeting

Twenty-six members attended the Board of Trade meeting in the Lions hall on Tuesday evening, March 15, and the meeting was called to order by the president, W. H. Payne.

Vic Seley reported on the trip of the delegation to Edmonton in an endeavor to have the road from the highway into Didsbury had surfaced, and the proposal of a highway from Didsbury to Three Hills. W. H. Payne added that Mr. Gerhart would attend a luncheon meeting in Didsbury on May 9 and would go over the route while here.

The report of the delegation interviewing the Municipal Council was given by Bert Prevost and he outlined the proposal to straighten the road between the hospital corner and the top of the hill, stating that Mr. Larsen would sell the necessary land if it was to be used for a highway.

A communication from H.G. Hamnell, M.L.A., advised that bridge material and bridge crews would be available for any work necessary in connection with the road from town to the highway.

The meeting decided to allow delegates eight cents per mile for car expenses in connection with Board of Trade business.

The school question and building program was discussed and the lack of information on the meetings and actions of the Divisional Board at its meetings was criticized. W. H. Payne said that there was no school information or news in the local paper, and nothing was ever published.

George McDonald and Ken Burns both stated that when the vote on the school question was taken the rateragers in general did not really understand the situation, and Mr. Burns suggested more rural members on the Board of Trade executive.

The president said it was hoped to have meetings both east and west of Didsbury in an endeavor to get more intimate with the school, that the Board of Trade had to be kept alive and every member should do his part. At the next meeting he hoped for a better attendance of both men and women from town and country, as the school question would again be discussed.

Vic Seley, chairman of the Reception Committee said that the facilities set up at Reiber Brothers' office for supplying information to strangers on rental properties was functioning satisfactorily.

The possibility of a modern trailer camp was discussed and a pro-

The Westerdale hockey players tangled with the Didsbury Beavers on Saturday night and we understand it was a rugged game. Doug Ross opened the scoring for the locals, followed by Sam Jackson and Jim Jackson. Dick Phillips scored the winning goal in overtime. Several of the players had the misfortune to have their purses robbed or taken when the latch of their dressing room was forced during the game.

A sure sign of spring is that the starlings have returned and gophers are out in large numbers. A meadowlark was also seen by your correspondent on Tuesday. The mild weather of the past three days is settling the snow and water is running where the snow is thin.

It was reported that the social evening with films, held at Mountain View Hall on March 14, was very successful and the sum of $25.25 was cleared for the Didsbury and District Red Cross wheel chair fund.

Mrs. James Worrall gave an excellent book review on "The Local Rag" book.

A life ring on the rail of the bridge looks like a big white fish. The fish netted 100-odd pounds of mixed fish from Brown's Bank below Nova Scotia.

Zella W.I. Welcomes Another New Member

Fourteen members attended the March meeting of the Zella W.I. held at the home of Mrs. H. Christensen Thursday, March 20. A new member, Mrs. Bill Broadhead, was welcomed to the group, with the membership now standing at 16.

Roll call was a way of using leftovers. Another three pairs of socks and two quilts were turned in for the Red Cross.

Mrs. T. Spooner, the secretary, was asked to purchase a scrapbook to be used for the W.I. and also to purchase three pairs of slippers for donation to the Didsbury hospital.

Mrs. H. Christensen was elected delegate to the Olds Conference, as Mrs. E. Walldorf will be unable to attend.

A delicious lunch, served by the hostess, was greatly enjoyed before the ladies left to enjoy their way homeward.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. Lowrie on Thursday, April 17.

ROAD BANS IN EFFECT

Owing to the mild weather and start of the spring break-up, water is running everywhere and roads are becoming soft as the frost goes down. Banning is in effect on some of the roads in the district.

Starting at 7 a.m. Wednesday, March 26, the Municipal District of Mountain View has placed a ban on all roads in Townships 28, 29, 30 and 31 in the Municipality and the ban will remain in effect until further notice.

The road ban applies to all tractors, trailers and trucks with a gross weight including load of more than 5,000 pounds.

It was decided that the Cremona W.I. ladies would serve cocoa at the festival in April.

ZELLA W.I. CARD PARTY

Due to the epidemic of influenza, the attendance was small at the W.I. card party held at the Dick Nelson home on March 28. The missionary topic was taken by Mrs. Ed Klinek, and she gave an interesting outline of another chapter of the book "From Lakes to Northern Lights," dealing with helping and working with immigrants, refugees and displaced persons.

Mrs. Percy Hoesegood gave an interesting report on the W.A. Presbytery at Red Deer on February 22.

The citizenship topic was given by Mrs. Jack Robertson and she presented an outline of the book "Next Year Country" by Gene Barnett.

The first play to be presented is a comedy entitled "If Men Played Cards as Women Do" and the cast comprises members of the Lions Club directed by Ed Mickelson.

OFF THE BEAM

Our article of last week in regard to Olds and natural gas aroused the ire of various people in towns to the north.

In fact, that we made an error in assuming that Olds was the only town to have submitted the gas franchise to the Board of Public Utility Commissioners.

We have been informed by Councillor Bert Lockart of Bowden that the Council of that town submitted the franchise on October 23rd and that Innisfail did the same on November 5th.

We have further learned that all towns have now submitted the franchise, so we should have made gas action shortly—Odds Gazette.

Letter To The Editor

SIDEWALKS IN DIDSBURY

Being a resident of Didsbury I would like to draw the attention of our Town Council to the awful condition of some of our sidewalks in this fair town and to request that the Mayor and City Fathers take a stroll from Barrett's Garage eastward the hospital, and they need to go only a short distance to find out how fair the condition of at least some of our so-called sidewalks on the east side of the railway. You often hear it mentioned that the only time the Town Council remembers that we exist is when taxes are wanted!

The supposed sidewalk past Anderson's Machine Shop is impassable and has been so for a long time and some crossings are not much better. As most of our City Fathers reside on the west side of the track (where sidewalks are in better condition) I doubt if they are aware of the existing condition mentioned above.

As this is the main sidewalk leading from the hospital to town and is used daily by many residents who have no cars to get to by these mud holes, they would be very grateful to the council if they would fill these mud holes with cinders or gravel and raise the sidewalk above mud level so they would be at least normally passable for all pedestrians including small and school children.

Trusting that this will be taken care of—not next summer—but NOW.

Didsbury Water Supply Contains Fluorine

A recent analysis of the Didsbury water supply, made by the Dominion government laboratory, has been received by the Town Council and shows that the water is free of contamination and that it contains a natural fluorine content of 1.75 parts per million.

According to Dr. McNichol, local dentist, the ideal fluorine content of water should be between 1.5 and 2 parts per million, and he is highly elated over the fact that the local water supply contains almost the right percentage of fluorine as recommended by dental and medical associations in both Canada and the United States.

Fluorine increases the hardness of enamel and reduces tooth decay up to 50 per cent in children's teeth. However, very little benefit is noted in adult teeth with the addition of fluorine in water.

Dr. McNichol also stated that because fluorine was present in the Didsbury water supply was no reason for parents to neglect their children's teeth as it was only an added protection and not a cure for tooth decay.

WE SHOULD BE PROUD

Canadians, as a people, are tinged with an overabundance of humility, modesty or plain inferiority complex when they consider their own achievements. They tend to apologize for conditions and developments here and to regard accomplishment in Britain and the United States as something beyond the capabilities of this nation. Too often they take the attitude that nothing good can come out of Canada.

Humility is doubtless good in its place, but so is pride, and Canadians have much of which they should be proud.

While still retaining the right of constructive criticism, Canadians should be proud of their democratic government which, in a world tending to extremes, has trod a middle of the road path. They should be proud of the freedom that is theirs, of the rights and privileges that have been handed down in trust from previous generations. They should be proud of their place in the British Commonwealth under the sovereignty of their Liege Lady, Queen Elizabeth II.

Canadians are living in an expansionist age, a period in the nation's history when great developments are taking place in the country. Canada, for instance, produces half of the world's supply of newsprint, the second largest export wheat crop, ninety per cent of the free world's supply of nickel and an important part of the zinc, copper, aluminum and other materials needed for the defence of the west. Vast developments are under way in oil, iron, uranium, industry, electrical power. Last year Canadians invested some 22 per cent of their national income in new developments. Foreign capital is flowing into the country and more and more Canadian capital is being utilized to develop the natural resources and industry of the nation.

Canadians may well be proud, too, of awakened interest in the arts. Across the land music festivals, art exhibits, drama festivals, ballet festivals show that this new nation is not neglecting the finer things of life. More and more Canadians are aware of the fact that "culture" is not something for highbrows but may be enjoyed by everyone. Good music via the radio and performances of symphonies, choirs and soloists is becoming part of the daily living of millions of Canadians. Canadians are writing books, plays and poetry, are painting and composing as never before.

The second half of the twentieth century belongs to Canada. As Churchill said recently in Ottawa, "upon the whole surface of the globe, there is no more spacious and splendid domain than Canada open to the activity and genius of free men." Let us then be proud of what our nation of 14 million souls has accomplished, is accomplishing and will accomplish. We should be proud of Canada.

FERTILIZERS PROVE VALUABLE

Tests conducted on several different types of soil throughout the Peace River region indicate that increase from 3 to 10 bushels of wheat per acre can be expected from the application of 25 pounds of ammonium phosphate fertilizer (11-48-0). Oats show a similar response, while barley responds even more markedly to the application of fertilizer. In addition to the increase in yield, maturity is also advanced from 3 to 10 days under normal conditions.

The cost of the fertilizer at last year's price was $1.25 per acre.

Fertilizers and Animal Growth

The value of fertilizers on the feeding value of crops is clearly indicated in a simple experiment being carried on by the soils department of the University of Alberta. Two pens of rabbits are being fed similar rations, largely made up of alfalfa. The alfalfa in one ration, however, was grown on a fertilized lot of grey wooded soil while the alfalfa in the other was grown on unfertilized soil.

All rabbits were the same size when the experiment began, but now those which are receiving the fertilized alfalfa are nearly full grown and about half as large again as the rabbits being fed the unfertilized alfalfa. They are bright and alert and in the healthiest condition. The other rabbits, as well as being much smaller, are lacking in general vigor and condition.

The experiment indicates that, in addition to increasing yields, fertilizers may be of considerable value in improving the feeding value of crops.

Tests on Fitch at Ernie Walker Farm in Didsbury District

The following is a result of tests made on the Ernie Walker farm in 1951 and supplied to me by Prof. Bentley of Alberta University. The tests were made on stubble crops on barley:

Check plot (no fertilizer)	14.4
11-48 at 25 lbs. increase	19.4
11-48 at 50 lbs. increase	23.6
11-48 at 75 lbs. increase	26.5
16-20 at 60 lbs. increase	23.9
16-20 at 120 lbs. increase	28.8

WEDDINGS

CLARKE-STANTON

St. John's Anglican Church of Oids was the scene of a pretty wedding at 2:45 p.m. on March 14, solemnized by Rev. A. F. Sheward, when Hilda, Irene, second eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Clarke Sr. of Didsbury became the bride of Mr. Ronald Thomas, second eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. William Stanton of Oids.

Mr. George Clarke gave his daughter in marriage, and she wore a green gabardine suit with a corsage of tea roses and a small flowered hat to match. She wore a gold locket, the gift of the groom.

Miss Muriel Clarke, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a sky blue suit with matching accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Mr. Gerald Stanton of Calgary supported the groom.

The bride's mother wore a rose crepe dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a green jersey, for the occasion. Both wore corsages of deep red roses.

Miss Alice Clarke, sister of the bride, played the wedding music.

A reception was held at the home of the bride and a tiered wedding cake centred the bride's table. The room was tastefully decorated with pink and white streamers and white bells.

Mr. John Clarke proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom responded.

Among well wishes and congratulations the happy couple left for a short honeymoon to southern points and on their return they will reside in Wetaskiwin.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED

For many years we have been accustomed to signs in our store windows saying that a premium would be allowed on American funds. Now the tune has changed. The other day, reports Napier Moore in the Financial Post, this notice appeared in a Toronto durgist's window: "American money accepted at par."

June 12 and the astonishing 200% increase was largely due to advancing the maturity date.

MAKE UP YOUR MINDS BOYS

The boys on the editorial staff of the Calgary Herald should get together. In one editorial the statement was made that the wheat producers of Western Canada had lost $600 million because their grain was sold through the Wheat Board and not on the speculative market. A couple of days later Basil Dean, in his column on the editorial page, said the farmers were going out of dairying and livestock production because much more money could be made in producing wheat. —Wheat Pool Bulletin.

Grain Should Be Dry Before Threshing

In Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta there are many millions of bushels of tough and damp grain, carried over in farm bins during the winter, which will be marketed during the coming spring. The quantity of damp wheat alone is estimated at 36 million bushels. Besides that there is a large volume of tough wheat in farm bins. The volume of tough and damp oats and barley is unknown, but it is expected to be quite substantial. In view of these circumstances, R. Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of trade and commerce, warns western farmers who have crops still in the field, that the same should not be harvested until the grain is dry. Threshing damp or tough grain would only add to the already difficult problem of disposing of out-of-condition grain. About 186 million bushels of tough and damp wheat, oats and barley have been delivered from the 1951 crop. About 50 million bushels of such grain have been dried at terminal elevators. Quantities have been sold without being dried, and about 10 million bushels will be dried in the United States. Still on hand is a large volume of grain that must be disposed of in some manner. —Wheat Pool Budget.

WAR BRIDE PARENTS GET DOLLARS

Bernonsey (London) parents are to be allowed $89 to visit their war bride daughters in Canada and the United States again this year despite Britain's desperate dollar shortage. The decision was recently announced by the Minister of Economic Affairs, Sir Walter Salter, to the Bernonsey branch of the U.S. and Canadian Brides' Parents Association.

WANTED: SPORTSMEN FOR A GOOD CAUSE

(Calgary Herald)
The Calgary Fish and Game Association is out hunting. Its quarry is the two-legged, well-armed mammal, officially labelled the "sportsmaniacus ardens" whose most natural habitat is along the banks of mountain streams, in the swamp grass of prairie sloughs, or high in the timberline of the Rockies. It is known for a fact that there are more of these species in and around Calgary than in any other section of the Dominion. They can be identified by the guns and rods which they invariably carry, and since these must be licensed by the province, it has been estimated by observers that nearly 13,000 sportsmen could be found right in Calgary.

Last year 2,260 of these "were" members of the Calgary Fish and Game Association, which made that organization the largest active sportsman's group in Canada. It wouldn't surprise us at all if it were also one of the oldest, for the sportsmen of this city first banded together in this association back in 1905-06.

Right from the start these sportsmen realized that being located in the best duck hunting, big game hunting and mountain fishing country in Canada wasn't enough. They knew that to keep the paradise that way somebody had to increase fish and bird stocks, eliminate pests, keep check on the trigger-happy hunters and generally conserve nature's storehouse for future generations. One of the association's first great undertakings was to introduce the Hungarian partridge to Western Canada and the United States. It was continuously at work improving the mountain streams so that better fishing could be had. It has run annual campaigns to eliminate the menace of the crow and the magpie and has worked with Ducks Unlimited to increase the waterfowl.

Last year, when the great snow storms of June killed off much of the pheasant population in Southern Alberta, the Calgary association raised several thousand dollars, purchased 15,000 pheasant eggs in normal and it has facilities for hatching, brooding and penning thousands of the pheasants. In addition to this work, these sportsmen have done a great deal in the movement of elk in the mountains for the benefit of the hunter and they have gone out of their way to improve farmer-sportsmen relations for the hunting seasons.

To do all these worthwhile things requires money and willing help. That means more members in the associations. The work which this organization has done through more than four decades is benefiting every sportsman today. The least that these folks could do is to consider this fact the next time they reach for their fishing tackle or clean out their guns. You can't preserve these happy hunting grounds with good intentions.

In a 20-mile race a man would win over a horse because of his endurance.

PURCHASE OF RESERVES

Recently the Alberta Wheat Pool distributed cheques totalling approximately $900,000 for the purchase of Pool reserves.

Such reserves will be purchased from the estates of deceased members; from members who are not now engaged in farming or possess land; for members sixty-five years of age or over who are failing or possessed of land. In addition a rateable purchase is being made from all contract signers, 1923-1928, of 35% of reserve deductions standing in their name. At the last annual meeting the delegates decided to appropriate 1,400,000 dollars for the purchase of Wheat Pool reserves issued between 1923-1928. Upon completion of these purchases a total of 6,900,000 dollars worth of reserves will have been bought back leaving 1,500,000 dollars outstanding. Some 1,000,000 dollars worth of reserves have been released in the form of patronage dividends since 1940.

Doctors, Hospitals And Patients Rely On Blood

People from all walks of life, from the towns and country, of all ages and sexes are receiving blood from the Red Cross Blood Transfusion Service. It is required in combating a wide range of ills, including accidents. More blood is being used in Alberta hospitals than ever before. In January and February of this year a new high record was reached. This of course taxes the resources of the service and necessitates additional donor enrolment and subsequently attendance.

Calgary supplied the needs of all southern Alberta hospitals during these months, and all demands were met. We are now depending on Didsbury and other rural districts to help us in maintaining the supply of blood.

Doctors, hospitals and patients are relying more and more on the Red Cross Blood Transfusion Service to help maintain and restore normal health speedily and to aid in the saving of lives that otherwise would surely be lost. The exceedingly important tests and work done with pregnancy cases and treatment of diseases of the newborn alone make us Alberta indebted to the Red Cross for the survival of many, many infants who would certainly not have survived.

Of major importance, too, is the fact that plasma must be stockpiled, both for civilian and our armed forces use. With the added importance of stockpiling plasma for Civil Defence for use in mass disaster such as explosions, fire, etc., we realize the extreme need for these reserves to meet any emergency in Alberta. All these facts are a challenge to the people of Didsbury and district.

ARAMITE: Science has developed within the last years a new wonder insecticide. It has proven effective against the active stages of Citrus Mites, Clover Mite, Red Spider Mite, Spruce Mite and other varieties of the mite. Aramite is also effective against chickens or poultry mites and chiggers. It can be used without fear of damage to foliage on all fruit trees and ornamentals with the possible exception of pears. Its toxicity to warm blooded animals is low and it can therefore be used with safety by spray operators.

Aramite at 2 lbs. per 100 gallons of spray water now gives growers the lowest cost control of mites and at the same time does not destroy insects which are of value as predators or as pollinators. It is selective to the extent that it will control the undesirable mites and not harm certain other insects such as honey bees. It is replacing insecticides which kill not only the mites but also other useful insects. Many growers in the Okanagan Valley of B.C. used Aramite in the 1951 season to control their mites and were therefore able to avoid the use of highly toxic miticides formerly found necessary.

RADIOACTIVE PASSPORTS FOR OUR INSECTS

Scientists have only recently developed methods that enable them to initiate the procedure of the passport office and provide any wandering insect with the equivalent of a passport. This makes it possible to keep a record of the insect's movements, study its habits, and makes it easy for the entomologist to locate the insect for any future requirement. With characteristic thoroughness, scientists have developed a tagging system that surpasses in effectiveness anything the passport office has to offer.

Once the insect is provided with a radioactive passport or, more correctly stated, with a radioactive tag or tracer, it is marked for the duration of the tracer. This means the identification cannot be lost or stolen. Even should the bearer of the radioactive passport meet with foul play and get caught, eaten, digested, and assimilated in the body of another animal, the scientist can come along with a Geiger counter and point an accusing finger at the culprit-predator.

W.F. Baldwin, of the Canada Department of Agriculture's Belleville Laboratories, who is working in co-operation with atomized scientists at Chalk River, has just disclosed some startling results obtained by feeding or injecting the parasite of the spruce saw fly and the rove beetle, a parasite of root maggots, with radioactive phosphorus. Such treatment as is well known makes the treated insect radioactive. But Mr. Baldwin's experiments show that radioactivity can also be transmitted to the insect's progeny.

These important results will enable entomologists to study the movement and spread of several generations of economically important parasites of crop destroying insects, among which are the spruce saw fly and root maggot.

Other investigations envisaged by Mr. Baldwin are: (1) identification of the main predators of mosquito larvae — which can be done very simply by making the larvae radioactive and then by means of a Geiger counter, picking out the types of insect-predators which have fed on the larvae; (2) find out how a parasite goes about finding its host; and (3) study the dispersion and range of various parasites and predators.

ALBERTA'S AGRICULTURE STILL FIRST INDUSTRY

Agriculture, still Alberta's top industry, had a 1951 production value of $758,841,000 compared with $571,337,000 in 1951, according to the statistical report issued recently by the Department of Industries and Labor.

Value of 1951 mineral production including petroleum, natural gas, coal and salt was $175,230,754 compared with $133,758,940. The report showed that farmers produced 150,000,000 bushels of wheat with an estimated value of $225,000,000 in 1951 compared with the previous year's 117,000,000 bushels worth $182,520,000.

Animals sold and slaughtered during 1951 totalled 1,537,634, a drop of 206.77. But the value of ani-

ONE CANADA OR TEN?

If a firm stand is not drawn soon, some fine morning we are going to wake up and find that the country has fallen apart. Instead of one state there will be ten, each with its own provincial barriers, each with restriction against goods, services and populations of the other.

Several provinces recently have banned livestock and meat from the West; Nova Scotia has a new law which forbids the hiring of non-residents; cities all across the country have prohibitive license fees for all sorts of outside trades and services.

"It's about time we realize that we are all Canadians, and that this is all one country from the Atlantic to the Pacific, that every citizen is entitled to the same privileges and opportunities."

males marketed was $167,241,000, an increase of $14,884,000.

Production of coal, which still forms the bulk of the province's fuel reserves, was down 5.63 per cent or 456,930 tons from 1950. The report said the reason for the drop was loss of markets to gas and oil.

During 1951 Alberta's booming oil industry produced 45,915,384 barrels of crude oil valued at $115,809,221 and 515,627 barrels of natural gasoline valued at $1,663,851. Natural gas production in 1951 totalled 85,382,151,000 cubic feet valued at $1,269,108 against 75,578,500,000 valued at $3,778,924.

Alberta's refineries produced 15,974,445 barrels of crude oil last year compared with 13,751,385 in 1950.

Canada's Labor Force hit an all-time high in 1951, according to Labor Minister M.F. Gregg. The peak was reached during the summer when 5,350,000 Canadians were employed. This was 1,000,000 more than in 1939. Construction accounted for approximately 400,000 workers, the highest figure in the history of the industry.

BERGEN NOTES

It is rather an unusual season of the year for travelling roads but that is just what has been happening to a two-mile stretch on the Edswold school bus route south of the town line three miles west of Bergen. Egil Erickson, the school bus driver, has been wearing a broad smile even though he has been sick with the flu, for when the roads were wet he had a choice of an eight mile a day walk or an all day visit with the neighbors, which is not always convenient for a farmer. The road foreman, Wesley Huang and the others who did the work are to be congratulated for a job accomplished under very difficult circumstances. Some residents along this road for close to 40 years are especially thankful for gravel.

We are glad to hear that Dick Ladd is feeling much better and will be home soon.
 Mr. and Mrs. Tony Regier (Joan Hendrix) are the proud parents of a son.

The Bob Moore family escaped injury when their car was in collision with a car from Didsbury on what is termed as "suicide corner" on the Sundre road. The deep icy ruts make it almost impossible to control a car as Bob Clark found out when he met himself coming back in his Model T when it swamped ends and tipped over near the Bergen hall, with no damage done. Some of us are wondering when spring will be here. The snow is still hip deep in the bush.
